SpeedUP

English Course

Vocabulary Builder: Dreams & Goals

English / Português	Example Sentences
Dream / sonho	"My dream is to travel around the world."
Goal / objetivo, meta	"My goal is to speak English well."
Future / futuro	"I want a better future."
Hope / esperança, esperar	"I hope to visit Canada one day."
Wish / desejo	"My wish is to help my family."
Plan / plano, planejar	"I have a plan for next year."
Achieve / alcançar, realizar	"She wants to achieve her goals."
Success / sucesso	"Success takes time and effort."
Ambition / ambição	"His ambition is to open a business."

SpeedUP
English Course

Predictions and General Future Ideas

Positive Form (Use “will”)

Subject + will + base verb

- I will speak English better in the future.
- She will achieve her goals.
- Technology will change many jobs.
- We will need English for work and travel.
- They will be successful with practice.

Negative Form

Subject + will not + base verb

will not = won’t

- I won’t give up.
- He won’t stop studying.
- They won’t forget their goals.

Plans and Intentions (Use ‘going to’)

Usage and Formula

Use ‘going to’ when you already have a plan or intention.

Subject + am/is/are + going to + base verb

Examples

- I am going to study English tonight.
- She is going to apply for a new job.
- We are going to travel next year.
- They are going to start a small business.
- He is going to practice every day.

Short Forms

Full Form	Short Form
I am going to	I’m going to
She is going to	She’s going to
We are going to	We’re going to
They are going to	They’re going to

SpeedUP
English Course

Choosing the Right Future Form

Future with 'will'

Structure: will + base verb

- Prediction: "I think she will be successful."
- Promise: "I will practice more."
- General future idea: "English will help my career."

Future with 'going to'

Structure: am/is/are + going to + base verb

- Plan: "I'm going to study tonight."
- Intention: "He's going to change jobs."
- Already decided action: "We're going to travel in July."

SpeedUP
English Course

Natural Ways to Talk About the Future

Expression & Meaning

- I want to... (desejo / objetivo)
- I hope to... (esperança)
- I plan to... (plano)
- I dream of... (sonho)
- My goal is to... (meta)
- My dream is to... (sonho)

Example Sentences

- I want to improve my English.
- I hope to travel next year.
- I plan to study at university.
- I dream of living abroad.
- My goal is to get a promotion.
- My dream is to open a restaurant.

SpeedUP
English Course

Useful Reason Words

Word	Use	Example
because	reason	"I study because I want to improve."
so	result	"I practice every day, so I will improve."
for	purpose / benefit	"English is important for my career."

SpeedUP
English Course

My Future Plans

My Future Plans

Short Text

Lucas has many goals for the future. He wants to improve his English because he dreams of working for an international company. Next year, he is going to take a new course and practice speaking every week. He hopes to travel to Canada one day and meet people from different cultures. Lucas believes English will help his career, and he says, “I won't give up. My dream is important to me.”

Language Highlights

- goals for the future
- wants to improve
- dreams of working
- is going to take
- hopes to travel
- will help his career
- I won’t give up

SpeedUP
English Course